

CAZRI participated in Krishi Unnati Mela: Union Minister of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare visited the Institute exhibition stall

Central Arid Zone Research Institute, Jodhpur participated in the three-day Krishi Unnati Mela held at New Delhi from 19-21 March, 2016. An exhibition stall displaying various technologies developed by the Institute was put up in the Mela, which was visited by Sh. Radha Mohan Singh, Union Minister of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Sh. Mohanbhai Kundariya, Union Minister of State for Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Dr. T. Mohapatra, Director General, ICAR and a large number of farmers and stakeholders. The Ministers and DG, ICAR took keen interest in the value added products of the institute. The Kisan Unnati Mela was inaugurated by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India.

The various information on technologies displayed in CAZRI stall included value-added products, solar devices, farming systems, arid horticulture, water harvesting structures, crop varieties, rodent control, nutrient fodder brick and gum production from Kumat. The value added products of bajra and horticulture produce were the main attractions of the stall.

International Year of Pulses-2016: CAZRI participates in the Exhibition at IIPR, Kanpur

Central Arid Zone Research Institute, Jodhpur showcased Institute technologies in the exhibition on the occasion of International Year of Pulses celebrations held at IIPR, Kanpur on 13.3.2016. The institute stall was visited by the Union Minister of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Sh. Radha Mohan Singh, Director General, ICAR, Dr. T. Mohapatra and Dr. J.S. Sandhu, Deputy Director General (Crops), ICAR. The dignitaries took keen interest in various technologies developed by the Institute. The International Year of Pulses was inaugurated by the Hon'ble Union Minister of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare.

The institute displayed various technologies which included crop varieties especially of arid legumes, value added products, solar devices, gum production from trees, multi-nutrient animal feed blocks, arid horticulture and water harvesting structures etc. The value added products of bajra and horticulture produce were the main attraction of the stall.

