

Skilled supporting staff of ICAR-Central Arid Zone Research Institute, Jodhpur trained on improving work efficiency

Two short term trainings on improving efficiency of skilled supporting staff of ICAR-Central Arid Zone Research Institute, Jodhpur were organized during 3-5 February and 4-6 March, 2021. Total of 71 skilled supporting personnel from Jodhpur, Pali, Bikaner and Jaisalmer participated in these trainings. Director CAZRI Dr O.P. Yadav interacted with trainees and encouraged them to enhance their skills so as to enhance the quality of output. Dr Pratibha Tewari, Head and Dr S.P.S. Tanwar, Officer I/C of HRD Unit of institute designed the training programme.

During the training lectures were delivered by Shri Shyam Rathi on motivation and cheerfulness in life, Shri Karan Singh on importance of supporting services in general administration, Shri Vimal Purohit and his team on digital awareness (Email/ERP/CAZRI Intra/online facilities etc.), Shri A.K. Sharma on herbal plants and spices for health in COVID-19 related new normal necessities, Shri Sunil Choudhary on general awareness of financial rules and service benefits, Dr Pratibha Tewari on CAZRI kisan mitra, Dr B.L. Manjunath on CAZRI extension system knowledge for supporting staff and Shri Sanjay Kapoor on maintaining the health and happiness through yoga. Besides, Short films on CAZRI at a glance, organic farming, gum producing technology and CAZRI Kisan Mitra were also shown to participants. Dr Dipika Hajong and Dr Pramendra coordinated the programmes.